

The Simone de Beauvoir Institute
The Department of Journalism and
The Concordia Sexuality Research Project invite you to a special presentation

---

RESTRICTED ENTRY: CENSORSHIP ON TRIAL

A chronicle of the censorship case between Little Sister's Bookstore and Canada Customs

with co-authors

Janine Fuller & Stuart Blackley

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18 AT NOON
2170 BISHOP
ROOM 101

Janine Fuller and Stuart Blackley come to Montreal as part of a national tour for their book, Restricted Entry: Censorship on Trial. Janine is the manager of Little Sister's bookstore which was involved in the 1994 court case against Canada Customs over the detention of materials bound for the store. Stuart is a journalist who covered the case. Their book is the winner of the 1996 Editor's Choice Lambda Literary Award.

The 2nd edition includes a new analysis of the B.C. Supreme Court decision as well as a comprehensive index. A video made during the trial by filmmaker Aerlyn Weissman (Forbidden Love) will also be shown. This will be a unique opportunity for audience members to discuss some of the important censorship issues in the trial.

---

Information: 848-2373

---